WEEKLY RECAP

February 13, 2017 thru February 19, 2017

Possession of Narcotic Paraphernalia / DWLS

On February 13th a Sergeant and Officer working in tandem, stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River Ave and Halsted for a defective headlight. During the stop it was learned that the driver smoked a joint in the car about an hour prior to being stopped. The driver's license was found to be suspended and was in possession of a metal "one hitter" which still smelled of burnt marijuana. The driver was arrested and transported to the Farmington Jail.

Uttering and Publishing a Check

On February 16th an Officer took a report from the Branch Manager of a Farmington Credit Union regarding a check fraud that occurred in December 2016. The Branch Manager reported that a known suspect cashed one check in the amount of $1368.19 at the Farmington branch and another check in that amount of $1360.06 at the West Bloomfield branch. The Officer collected relevant evidence and witness statements and the case was assigned to a Detective for follow up with the listed suspect.

Solicitors and Peddlers without a Permit

On February 16th an Officer responded to Conroy Court for a report of a male subject going door-to-door soliciting for a tree service. The Officer located the subject in the area and learned that he was in the area trying to get new customers and only approached homes that did NOT have a "No Soliciting" sign on their doors. The subject admitted that he did NOT have a permit to solicit door-to-door in Farmington. The subject was issued a citation and released at the scene.

Operating while Intoxicated

On February 16th an Officer stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River and Brookdale for tailgating another vehicle and driving without headlights on. While talking with the driver, the Officer could smell the odor of an intoxicant coming from the interior of the vehicle. The driver admitted to drinking a "bottle of wine". The driver completed field sobriety evaluations to include a PBT, which resulted .12(8). During the inventory search of the vehicle the Officer found a 1/3 full bottle of Vodka near the driver's seat. The driver was arrested for OWI and transported to the Farmington jail.
