SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Shots Fired

On February 24th officers responded to the Zap Zone on Grand River after numerous 9-1-1 calls reported gunfire with potentially three victims at the location. Officers arrived on scene and found numerous spent shell casings in the parking lot. Officers checked the business and were unable to locate any victims or evidence that anyone had been struck by gun fire. Officers checked the business video camera and noted that 6 males had targeted an intended victim and appeared to have missed. The 6 fled the scene in a black Dodge Ram pick up truck. The victim also fled the scene.

Farmington Public Safety Detectives released the above photos to the public in an attempt to locate persons of interest in this incident. If you recognize any of the above subjects, please call Detective Miracle at 248-474-4700.

Identity Theft

On February 26th a Sterling Heights resident came into this police department to report that she was the victim of an identity theft. The victim reports that she had recently learned that several credit card accounts had been opened in her name with thousands of dollars in charges made between 2014 and 2018. The victim reports that she had lived in Farmington during those years with her ex-boyfriend. The victim advises that her ex-boyfriend has a long criminal history of credit card fraud and she now believes that he had victimized her when she ended their relationship. The investigation was forwarded to the detective bureau.

Malicious Destruction of Property

On February 27th an officer responded to the First Baptist Church for a report of a destruction of property. Upon arrival the officer met with a church staff member and learned that the staff member had video of a white male trying to pry open the church's locked mailbox. The male suspect had exited a white newer model Mazda SUV driven by an older white female. The suspect attempted several times to open the mailbox but was unsuccessful. The investigation was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Arson

On February 28th officers and Engine 1 responded to a home on Frederick St. for a kitchen fire. Upon arrival officers located several flammable items on fire on top of a stove. Officers extinguished the fire and located the resident of the home hiding in her bedroom. Officers noted that the items on the stove appeared to have been purposely placed on the burners and the burners turned on. Officers also noted that the bathtub was overflowing with water and that the resident refused to speak with officers and neighbors. Officers transported the resident to the hospital for evaluation.
