SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Kitchen Fire

On January 6th officers and Engine 1 responded to an apartment on Farmington Rd. for a report of a kitchen fire. Upon arrival officers learned that the occupant had extinguished the fire already. Officers determined that the fire was caused by an unknown cloth that had been left in the broiler of the stove. Officer ventilated the smoke from inside the apartment building and cleared the scene.

Fraud

On January 8th a Wesley St. resident reported at the Farmington police department that he had received an email from Amazon regarding a package purchase made in March. The victim contacted Amazon and spoke with a male who convinced the victim to allow the male to remotely access the victim's cell phone and bank account. The male transferred $1,990 out of the victim's account. The report was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Suspicious Person

On January 9th an officer responded to a home on Lee Lane for a report of a suspicious person. Upon arrival the officer learned that an unknown white male knocked on the reporting person's door. The complainant answered the door and was advised by the man that he was going door to door informing residents that he is turning off power to the subdivision. The complainant noted that the male asked to come into the elderly complainant's home in order to show what he is working on. The complainant refused and immediately closed the door. The man left, but never knocked on any other doors in the sub. The man is described as approximately 60 years old, wearing a blue jacket and mailman pants. He was driving an older model white pick up truck.
