SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Solicitor Complaint

On June 21st an officer responded to the area of State St. near Cortland for a report of a door to door salesman. Upon arrival the officer located the saleswoman, who worked for a pest control service. The woman admitted to soliciting without a Farmington City permit. The woman was cited for the violation and released from the scene. On June 22nd, another officer responded to the area of Cass St and Alta Loma and issued another worker from the same pest control company for soliciting without a permit.

Carrying a Concealed Pistol

On June 22nd an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Orchard Lake and Fink Ave for a headlight out and not having any rear lights. Upon interviewing the driver, the officer noted that the driver was acting unusually nervous. The officer asked the driver if he had any weapons on him and he admitted that he had a Smith and Wesson handgun in his waistband. The man does not have a license to carry the firearm concealed so he was arrested.

Malicious Destruction of Property

On June 25th an officer responded to the Cowley's Irish Pub for a report of a destroyed flower pot. Upon arrival the officer learned from management that an unknown person had thrown one of the restaurant's potted plants onto the ground, destroying same. Management did not witness the incident and didn't know who had committed the crime. A review of the city surveillance cameras revealed a white male wearing what appeared to be a white jersey and a white female wearing a pink shirt exit the Basement Burger Bar and walked towards Farmington Rd. Once the couple reached Cowley's, the male suspect grabbed the potted plant and smashed it to the ground. The couple then walked north onto Farmington Rd. where they entered a maroon colored Chevrolet Trax and fled the scene.
