As the man was being escorted, he broke free from the sergeant and ran into the Meadow's Subdivision. Several officers gave chase to the subject and caught him hiding underneath a pick up truck in the subdivision. The subject is charged with driving with a suspended license and resisting and obstructing a police officer.

The complainant pointed out the man's rudeness which caused him to threaten to punch the complainant in the face. The man asked the complainant if he wanted to "take this outside" and the complainant refused. No assault had taken place, the man had left the scene prior to the officer's arrival.

LARCENY (11-4474)

On August 24th, an officer was dispatched to a report of a stove and refrigerator stolen out of the yard at a house on Floral Street. Sometime between August 21st, at 9:00 p.m., and August 22nd, at 7:00 a.m., an unknown person stole the appliances. A short time later the detective bureau was notified and they responded to a possible suspect's home in the area. A member of the detective bureau had taken another Malicious Destruction of Property (MDOP) report earlier in the week and the victims of that MDOP revealed a possible suspect. They made contact with the suspect who confessed to detectives and implicated two others who were involved.

Upon arrival officers spoke with the manager of the laundromat who advised that the man had fallen in front of the business, and as he was attempting to get up, he repeatedly banged his head into the glass window. The manager asked the man to stop banging his head, which caused him to bang his head more. The man was located at Namaste Flavours Restaurant where three employees said nothing to the officers, but pointed to an obviously intoxicated man leaving a restroom. The man advised that he and a friend had come from Kalamazoo in order to sell some Hindu religious material and that he had consumed too much Cuervo 1800 Tequila. area of Nine Mile and Farmington Road. The subject's vehicle was at 7-11 and they were advised not to drive as they were all intoxicated. The owner of the vehicle took a PBT and was found to have a blood alcohol content of .13%. A short time later an officer observed the vehicle leave 7-11 onto Farmington Road. When the officer pulled behind the vehicle, the driver immediately pulled onto the shoulder of Nine Mile and stopped the vehicle. The officer then observed the female driver climb into the backseat and the car keys were thrown into the grass. When the officer approached the vehicle, there was no one in the driver's seat and the female denied driving. The driver argued with the officer when she was advised of his observations. The driver was arrested for Operating While Intoxicated (BAC .11%). Two of the four passengers confirmed that the female was the driver.

Approximately twenty minutes later officers were dispatched to the Farmington West Apartments for the same two males arguing in the parking lot. Upon arrival the officers located one of the males who advised that he and his friend had been drinking and arguing about paying his share of the groceries. The resident advised that he did not want his friend to return to his apartment and he would press charges for trespassing. Officers advised the male that if he returned that he would be charged with trespassing and he was driven to a local restaurant where he could arrange for a ride home.

Approximately two hours later the resident called this department advising that the male had returned. Officers returned to the complex and were informed that the male took off running when he learned that the police were called. Officers located the male hiding in some nearby bushes. The male was arrested and charged with trespassing.
