WEEKLY REPORT

December 17 - 23, 2012

POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA/WARRANTS OTHER POLICE DEPARTMENTS

On December 17th an officer observed a vehicle traveling slowly on westbound M-5 near Farmington Road. An inquiry of the plate showed the female registered owner to be revoked. The officer observed a female driving the vehicle. A traffic stop was conducted on westbound M-5 near Halsted. The driver was the niece of the owner. The officer detected a strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. A subsequent search of the vehicle and male passenger revealed three baggies of marijuana. The passenger had one bag in his left front pocket and two other bags in his boxing glove located in the back seat. The passenger was arrested for Possession of Marijuana. The vehicle was turned over to the driver. The passenger was cited for Possession of Marijuana and housed pending receipt of bond money. The passenger also had warrants for Interfering with a Police Officer out of West Bloomfield and Royal Oak police departments.

NEIGHBOR TROUBLE

On December 17th, at 11:57 a.m., officers responded to Drakeshire Apartments to help resolve a dispute between residents regarding the use of shared laundry facilities.

CUSTOMER TROUBLE

On December 18th, at 2:31 p.m., officers responded to Chul Bu'ul for a disturbance. Upon arrival officers learned that a former employee had returned to claim his recipes and an argument ensued. The former employee was advised not to return to the restaurant or he would be arrested for trespassing.

NEIGHBOR TROUBLE

On December 18th, at approximately 9:30 p.m., officers were dispatched to a report of an assault between neighbors at Drakeshire Apartments. Upon arrival officers met with the reporting person who advised that she confronted her upstairs neighbor over the noise level of the neighbor's stereo. The neighbor became angry with the reporting person and an argument ensued. The argument ended when the neighbor pushed the reporting person and she almost fell down the stairs. Officers spoke with the neighbor who admitted to having a heated argument with the reporting person, but denied ever touching her. There were no witnesses to the incident so the report was forwarded to the city prosecutor for review.

RESIDENTIAL BREAKING AND ENTERING

On December 19th, at 2:21 p.m., an officer responded to Wilmarth Street and met with a resident who is in the process of moving and not staying the night at the residence. The resident returned to the home to find a broken window on the door from her sunroom to her residence. There were also several pry marks around the door frame and handle. The unknown suspect(s) did not make entry into the main residence and did not take any of the items from the sunroom. The suspect(s) made entry into the sunroom via an unlocked door.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT/RESIST AND OBSTRUCT/SIMPLE ASSAULT

On December 20th, at 3:32 p.m., officers responded to Chatham Hills Apartments on a report of people fighting. Upon arrival it was learned that a resident had two friends over to drink and play cards when a fight broke out among the two visitors. While trying to separate the two, the main aggressor kicked an officer and attempted to flee. The resident later admitted to pointing a starter pistol at the two combatants in order to intimidate them and get them to stop fighting. All three were arrested and a warrant request was sent to the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office for consideration.

CIVIL MATTER

On December 20th, at approximately 7:24 p.m., a man came into this police department to report that he was the victim of a credit card fraud. The man explained that he opened his Best Buy credit card statement and learned that over $1,800 worth of merchandise was charged to his credit card in August. The man explained that his ex-wife had charged the items shortly before their divorce and that she never had legal access to his card. The investigating officer contacted the ex-wife who produced documentation from their divorce decree stating that the ex-husband is responsible for all charges to the Best Buy Card. The man was informed of the divorce decree and that he is not a victim of credit card fraud.

DISORDERLY PERSON

On December 20th, at approximately 11:03 p.m., officers were dispatched to the Farmington Tennis Club for an unruly customer. Upon arrival the employee of the tennis club advised officers that the customer had been pestering her that evening and that she felt he was getting increasingly more aggressive. The customer advised that he was not being aggressive, but agreed to leave.

CIVIL MATTER

On December 21st, at approximately 8:34 p.m., officers responded to a report of a disturbance at the Orchard Liquor and Fine Wine on Orchard Lake Road. Upon arrival officers learned that the store employees called the police on their liquor distributor delivery man who came into the store complaining that he had dropped off too much liquor at the store and he needed to take some back. The store management advised that their records show a proper amount of liquor was dropped off and refused to give any liquor back to the distributor. The man was advised to have his supervisor contact store management to resolve the issue.

MINOR IN POSSESSION

On December 22nd an officer stopped a vehicle for speeding 84 mph in a 70 zone on eastbound M-5 near Farmington Road. The officer detected an odor of intoxicants coming from the vehicle. The officer identified the two occupants of the vehicle. The twenty year old passenger admitted to consuming rum at a house party in Plymouth. The passenger submitted to a PBT with a result of .09(1). The passenger was cited for Minor in Possession. The driver was cited for speeding. The driver had not been drinking.

SUSPICIOUS PERSON

On December 22nd, at approximately 6:55 p.m., officers responded to a downtown business for a report of a suspicious man who claimed to have a weapon on him. Upon arrival officers learned from the employees that the man, who is a regular customer, came into the café and advised one of the employees that he has a concealed pistol license and that he has his pistol on him. The man told the employee that he is advising her so that she can feel safe in the business. The one employee told the other employee about the man who was very upset that there was a weapon in the business. Officers talked with the man who advised that he only told the employee that he had his pistol on him as a courtesy to her. The man left on his own accord and without incident.

CUSTOMER TROUBLE

On December 23rd, at 2:57 p.m., officers responded to the Mobil at Grand River and Drake where a cab driver complained of not getting paid for his services. Upon arrival it was learned that the riders had attempted to pay by credit card which was not accepted. An agreement was made where the riders filled the cab with enough gas to cover their fare.

NOTE: The dayshift also responded to five 5 medical emergency related calls for service this week and the afternoon shift responded to three family troubles.
