WEEKLY REPORT

January 28 – February 3, 2013

FAMILY TROUBLE

On January 28th officers were dispatched to a report of a disorderly female who was refusing to leave an apartment. Upon arrival, the reporting party stated that she and her live-in girlfriend had a verbal argument and she had refused to leave, but had since left and gone to another apartment in the same building. Officers made contact with the girlfriend of the reporting party and she confirmed that the disagreement was verbal and personal in nature. Both parties refuse any further police involvement and stated they would be going their own way.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED/FALSE IDENTIFICATION TO A POLICE OFFICER

On January 29th, at approximately 1:45 a.m., an officer stopped a vehicle near Grand River and Farmington Road for speeding. The driver could not produce a driver's license and verbally gave his personal information to the officer. The officer was unable to locate his driving status in the Secretary of State database. The driver was arrested for not having his driver's license upon his person while driving. The driver was transported to the station and processed through Livescan. Livescan revealed his true identity. The officer issued the subject a violation for speed, Driving While License Suspended, and False Identification to a Police Officer. The subject was housed awaiting arraignment.

CITIZEN ASSIST

On January 29th, at approximately 9:00 p.m., an officer on patrol noticed that the Valley View Condominium complex was flooding. Upon further investigation officers noted that an ice dam had developed on the south side of Grand River Avenue causing the Rouge River to overflow into Valley View Condos. Officers assisted residents of the complex in moving their vehicles so that the vehicles did not get damaged from the flood.

IDENTITY THEFT

On January 30th, at approximately 6:42 p.m., a resident of Longacre Street came into the police department to report that he had been a victim of credit card fraud. The victim reported that an unknown suspect had purchased an Apple I-pad from the online Apple Store using the victim's identity and had the item shipped to a residence in Taylor. A suspect was developed using the shipping address and the detective bureau is further investigating the crime.

ASSIST OTHER POLICE DEPARTMENT

On January 31st officers were dispatched to the area of Eight Mile and Farmington Road on a report of a Personal Injury Accident. Upon arrival, Livonia Police Department and fire units were already on the scene treating the drivers and passengers for minor injuries. It was determined that the accident occurred on the Farmington Hills side of Eight Mile Road and the accident scene was turned over to Farmington Hills police. This department assisted with traffic control in the area.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED

On February 1st an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle for traffic violation (turning right on red) at Grand River and Halsted Road. Subsequent to the traffic stop it was found that the driver did not have a valid driver's license. The driver was arrested and subsequently arrested for Driving While License Suspended.

COUNTERFEIT MONEY

On February 1st, at approximately 6:49 p.m., an officer was dispatched to a report of a counterfeit five dollar bill discovered at the Subway Restaurant at Nine Mile and Farmington Road. Upon arrival the investigating officer learned that when staff was counting the money in the cash register, they discovered that one of the employee's had inadvertently taken a counterfeit five dollar bill from a customer. The employees do not know which customer committed the crime. The officer took custody of the bill for evidence.

ASSIST OTHER LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

On February 1st, at approximately 8:21 p.m., officers assisted Farmington Hills police in locating a suicidal subject at the American Legion Hall.

OPERATING WHILE INTOXICATED/ MINOR IN POSSESSION OF ALCOHOL

On February 2nd, at approximately 3:00 a.m., an officer stopped a vehicle near Farmington Road and Nine Mile for improper lane use. Upon speaking to the occupants, the officer detected the odor of alcohol coming from the vehicle's interior. The driver stated that he had drunk three or four beers earlier. The driver was requested to perform a field sobriety test which he did and failed along with a PBT (Preliminary Breath Test), 10(6). The driver was arrested for Operating While Intoxicated.

The two passengers were both under the age of twenty-one and showed signs of having consumed alcohol. They agreed to take a PBT and both failed. They were both cited for Minor in Possession of Alcohol by Consumption.

The driver was transported to the station where he submitted two breath samples (.11 and .11). The driver was held at the station awaiting sobriety/ arraignment or bond.

OPERATING WHILE INTOXICATED

On February 2nd, at approximately 3:55 a.m., an officer stopped a vehicle near Grand River and Hawthorne for an equipment violation. Upon speaking to the driver, the officer detected the odor of alcohol coming from the driver who admitted to drinking a couple of beers. The driver performed field sobriety tests at the officer's request and failed same. The driver submitted to a PBT with a result of .08(1). The driver was arrested for Operating While Intoxicated.

The driver was transported back to the station and she submitted two breath samples (.07 and .08). The driver was held at the station awaiting sobriety/ arraignment or bond.

CITIZEN ASSIST/WELFARE CHECK

On February 3rd, at approximately 7 p.m., an officer was dispatched to the area of Grand River Avenue and Orchard Lake for a report of a disabled vehicle. Upon arrival the officer located the vehicle parked in the curb lane of Grand River Avenue with its ignition switch on but not running. The officer noted that the vehicle was empty and did not immediately see its owner. After several minutes an elderly male came walking up to the officer advising that the vehicle was his. The man thought that he was in Monroe, Michigan, and just a few blocks away from his home. Officers contacted his family and learned that the man suffers from severe dementia and had been missing for several hours. The man's vehicle had apparently run out of gasoline and was impounded by the officer. The man was transported to the police department where he was turned over to his family.

NOTE: The dayshift also responded to six (6) medical emergency related calls along with three (3) reports of traffic accidents for service this week.
