Farmington City Council Staff Report	Council Meeting Date: June 15, 2020	Item Number 3
Submitted by: Melissa Andrade, Assistant to the City Manager
Agenda Topic: Historical Commission interview and possible appointment to Commission
Proposed Motion: Move to appoint _____ to the Farmington Historical Commission for a 3-year term ending March 31, 2023.
Background: The Historical Commission currently has four vacancies. Three commissioners did not renew their terms and one had resigned. We currently have only one applicant. An appointment would mean the Commission would have a quorum. The Commission meetings the fourth Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. The Historical Commission was established by the City of Farmington in 1973 for the following purpose: 1) to safeguard the heritage of the City by preserving the cultural, social, economic, political and architectural elements having historic significance; 2) to stabilize and improve property values in such districts; 3) to foster and promote civic beautification with emphasis on historical significance; 4) to promote the use of local history for education, pleasure and the welfare of the citizens of the City; and 5) to encourage the collection of records and objects which interpret the history of Farmington, and cooperate in the establishment and operation of a museum or other appropriate center for custody and display of such items. The Historical Commission, consisting of nine members, meets on a monthly basis.

Submitted by: Melissa Andrade, Assistant to the City Manager
Agenda Topic: Appointment to Planning Commission
Proposed Motion: Move to appoint _____ to serve a 3-year term on the Farmington Planning Commission, term ending June 30, 2022.
Background: There is a vacancy on the Planning Commission left by Kenneth Chiara who served for nearly 10 years. The Planning Commission meets the second Monday of every month at 7 p.m. The Planning Commission is charged with developing the City's Master Plan, establishing zoning districts and regulations applicable to each district covering the use of the land, accommodating and promoting land uses which are compatible with the city's character, conserving property values and long term stability of residential neighborhoods, commercial districts, and industrial areas, promoting safe conditions for motorists, pedestrians and bicyclists, limiting improper use of land, and encouraging use of land natural resources in accordance with their character and capability. The Planning Commission meets on the second Monday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the City Council Chambers. The City is also seeking a resident to fill vacancies on the Board of Review and Historical Commission. These vacancies might be an option for one of the Planning Commission candidates.
Materials: Three applications
